

BOOKS

Browsing and Using the Catalogue

- Info on various countries can be found mainly in the 910s in non-fiction.
- The 910s in Reference is the site for atlases and encyclopaedias on various countries. Travel Atlases are also here.
- Try searching for your country in the catalogue too. Be on the lookout for maps.

NETWORKED RESOURCES

All Programs>Curriculum>Reference

- Online Atlas (Longman's) will give you:
 - Full atlas online
 - Lots of great outline maps

INTERNET SITES

General Sites for Travel Information

1. <http://www.lonelyplanet.com/destinations>
2. http://www.pilotguides.com/destination_guide/
3. <http://www.frommers.com>
4. <http://www.travelchannel.com/destinations>
5. <http://www.bestsearchers.com/best-websites/travel-guides.php>

INFORMATION FROM YOUR ONLINE LIBRARY ON SPECIFIC COUNTRIES

Search Engines

- Google or other Search Engines
 - Peru "tourist attractions"
 - Peru wonders (natural OR human OR man-made)
 - Peru map (landforms OR topography)
 - Peru (climate OR seasons)
 - Peru (food OR cuisine OR traditional dishes)
 - Peru (festivals OR carnivals)
 - Peru (adventures OR activities)

Directories

- Dmoz:
 - Find the Recreation heading> click on Travel> click in Regional> the region of your choice etc etc.
 - Remember once you're in a section, you can search for information just in this section.
- About:
 - Click on "Explore Topics">"P">Peru Travel (or similar, depending on your country)

Just For You

- WorldBook Online
 - Put the name of the country you are searching for in the "Search" box
 - Click on the name of your country in the search results
 - Look at the "contents" in the side bar and expand/collapse the topics you need to using the + and -
 - Note the "Related Information" in the box at the top right: the web sites may be particularly useful

